

Webinar on “Artificial Intelligence – Expert System” on 13th June, 2020.

Department of Computer Science organized Webinar on “Artificial Intelligence – Expert System” on 13th June, 2020. B.Sc. (IT) and B.Sc. (CT) students attended the Webinar. About 90 participants attended the seminar. The session started at 11.30 AM and got over at 12.45 PM.

Dr. R.Gunavathi, Associate Professor and Head, Department of MCA has more than 15 years of academic and research experience. She gave insight of basic concepts of Artificial Intelligence and difference between human and artificial expert system. Various application and area of research involved AI are discussed. MYCIN and DENDRAL expert system architecture are explained which enriches the knowledge of students.

Resource person shared their knowledge on Expert System